DR. TURNER ACQUITTED.

Dr. John H. Turner, of Velma, is in the city on his return home from Paris Texas, where he had been to face three indictments, one charging him with rape and two with murder. He came clear on all of them. From what the Doctor says and from documents sworn to, duly witnessed and acknowledged we are of the opinion he was a victim of persecution. Mary A. Whitner the prosecuting witness in the rape case went before a notary public and swore that she had testified falsely before the grand jury when the indictment was found, and that Dr. Turner had never in any way violated her person or taken forbidden liberties with her. She did not appear against him and in the face of the affidavit Judge Briant dismissed the cases saying the charges were base and without foundation. The indictments for murder were dismissed for want of evidence. The man killed was father of the girl Mary Whitner. Dr. Turner does not deny killing him but claims justification. This claim is substantiated by numerous scars from knife wounds inflicted during the difficulty in which Whitner was killed.
